Type of Payment	Method of Calculation of Future Adjustment
Retainer	Add increase then round off to the nearest ten cents
Rate of Pay – 1 st Hour	Multiply by 38, add the increase, round off to the nearest 10 cents, then divide by 38 and round off to the nearest cent
Each subsequent Half-hour or part thereof	Divide the "1st hour" rate by 2 and round off to the nearest cent.

6.13.2 The formulae prescribed in subclause 6.13.1 are not applicable in cases where a future adjustment is a flat dollar amount per week. In the event of such a flat increase occurring, any adjustments are to be made in accordance with the provisions prescribed for the application of that increase.

7.2 An employee shall not be entitled to perform Higher Duties unless the employee is qualified to perform such duties.

However, immediately following that initial appointment expressions of interest are to be called for and selection made on the basis of merit.

7.4.4 Where the period of relief is anticipated to be for six months or more, expressions of interest shall be called for and selection made on the basis of merit. Unless otherwise agreed between the Department and the Union, the period of this relief shall be divided equally between the successful applicants. Provided that in dividing the periods of this relief, the minimum period shall be three months. For example, if the period of relief is eight months and five applicants are found to be suitable, only the top two applicants would perform the relief and in this case, for a period of four months each.

7.4.5 For the purposes of this clause, merit shall be determined consistent with the principles and processes underlying merit based selection in the NSW Public Service.

8.4.1.2 The amount at Entitlement Code “N” of Table 1 of Part B, is half, rounded to the nearest five cents, of the amount at Entitlement Code “M” of Table 1 of Part B.

8.4.1.3 The amounts specified in subclauses 8.4.1.1 and 8.4.1.2 shall be re-calculated and shall take effect from the same date, as any adjustments made to the overtime meal allowances for breakfast, lunch and dinner allowances in the Crown Employees (Public Service Conditions Of Employment) Award 1997.

9.2.2 In cases where more than one employee is required to attend such meetings or to perform such other authorised duties, the total amount to be paid in terms of subclause 9.2.1, shall be limited to the amount which would be payable if the minimum number of vehicles necessary to provide the transport for the employees concerned, were used.

11.5 Long service leave shall be granted subject to the convenience of the Department, as and when such leave becomes due or any time thereafter. Provided that an employee shall give at least 30 days notice in writing of the intention to take such leave.

11.6 Long service leave shall be paid at the rate of full pay which, for the purposes of this clause, shall mean the greater average monthly remuneration received by the employee calculated over either the preceding twelve months or five years excluding any periods of Special Leave Without Pay, unpaid leave and/or suspension. The averages referred to in this subclause shall be calculated up to and including the end of the month immediately prior to the month during which the long service leave is taken or commences, as the case may be.

In such cases, employees shall be entitled to the accommodation allowances or reimbursement of expenses, as appropriate.

Where an employee does not wish to use the means of transport proposed by the Department, eg. air travel as against train or car travel, travelling time and allowances should be assessed on the basis that the most practical and economical means of transport is used.

19.6.3 Where an allowance is payable at a daily rate and a claim is made for a portion of the day, the amount to be paid is to be calculated to the nearest half hour.

This Clause applies even though the superannuation contributions made by the Department may be in excess of superannuation guarantee requirements after the salary sacrifice is implemented.

30. Bereavement Leave

30.1 An employee, other than a casual employee, shall be entitled to up to two days bereavement leave without deduction of pay, on each occasion of the death of a person as prescribed in subclause 30.3 of this clause.

30.2 The employee must notify the employer as soon as practicable of the intention to take bereavement leave and will, if required by the employer, provide to the satisfaction of the employer proof of death.

30.3 Bereavement leave shall be available to the employee in respect to the death of a person prescribed for the purposes of personal/carer's leave as set out in subparagraph 14.1.3.2 of clause 14, Personal/Carer's Leave, provided that, for the purpose of bereavement leave, the employee need not have been responsible for the care of the person concerned.

30.4 An employee shall not be entitled to bereavement leave under this clause during any period in respect of which the employee has been granted other leave.

30.5 Bereavement leave may be taken in conjunction with other leave available under subclauses 14.2 and 14.3 of clause 14. In determining such a request, the employer will give consideration to the circumstances of the employee and the reasonable operational requirements of the Department.

31. Anti-Discrimination

31.1 It is the intention of the parties bound by this Award to seek to achieve the object in 3(f) of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 to prevent and eliminate discrimination in the workplace. This includes discrimination on the grounds of race, sex, marital status, disability, homosexuality, transgender identity, age and responsibilities as a carer.

31.2 It follows that in fulfilling their obligations under the Disputes Avoidance Procedures prescribed by Clause 25, the parties have obligations to take all reasonable steps to ensure that the operation of the provisions of this Award are not directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects. It will be consistent with the fulfilment of these obligations for the parties to make application to vary any provision of the Award which, by its terms or operation, has a direct or indirect discriminatory effect.

31.3 Under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, it is unlawful to victimise an employee because the employee has made or may make or has been involved in a complaint of unlawful discrimination or harassment.

31.4 Nothing in this Clause is taken to affect:

31.4.1 any conduct or act which is specifically exempted from anti-discrimination legislation;

31.4.2 offering or providing junior rates of pay to persons under 21 years of age;

31.4.3 any act or practice of a body established to propagate religion which is exempted under section 56(d) of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977;

31.4.4 a party to this Award from pursuing matters of unlawful discrimination in any State or Federal jurisdiction.

31.5 This Clause does not create legal rights or obligations in addition to those imposed upon the parties by legislation referred to in this Clause.
