

SCOM ELECTION UPDATE

Just a reminder to all members, ballots for the State Committee elections started being posted yesterday. Members should commence receiving their ballots from the NSW Electoral Commission either late this week and into next week.

With the ballot closing at 5pm, Tuesday 30 April 2024, you should make sure you get your ballot completed and returned ASAP to ensure it arrives via Australia Post to the NSW Electoral Commission before the close of ballot date.

Instructions for how to vote will be provided with the ballot papers. Please ensure you carefully read and follow all instructions to make sure your vote counts.

If you do not receive a ballot, or have a concern that your postal address may be incorrect, you need to contact the NSW Electoral Commission directly on 1300 135 736 or email ballots@elections.nsw.gov.au.

You should also update your address with us which can be done via the change of address form on our website here <https://fbeu.net/contact-us/change-your-address/>.

For information on candidates, you can refer to the Candidate Information section on our website at <https://fbeu.net/2024-election-candidates/>.
